EXPERIENCE

PNY Institute RWP

- Developed responsive and user-friendly web applications using the MERN stack (MongoDB, Express.js, React, Node.js).
- Created a clone of the KFC website using HTML, CSS, and Bootstrap, focusing on replicating design and functionality.
- Built a color selection tool using React, allowing users to dynamically choose and preview colors.
- Developed a Tic-Tac-Toe game using JavaScript, enhancing my understanding of logic implementation and user interface design.
- Designed and developed a photofolio website using React, showcasing photography projects with a sleek and modern interface.
- Completed several projects at an institute specializing in frontend and backend development, further solidifying my skills in full-stack development.
- Collaborated on various projects, managing both the frontend and backend, and ensured seamless integration of APIs and databases.
- Continuously improved code quality through version control, debugging, and performance optimization techniques.
